It's really important to know and understand how what you do here,

1

00:08.007 --> 00:12.006

how that impacts somebody here and impacts this department over here,

2

00:12.007 --> 00:19.006

there's a lot of freedom for me to put my own input for my own spin on how to eventually get to our destination.

00:20.006 --> 00:25.636

There's a lot of people that have twenty-five, twenty, thirty and you know, forty years

4

00:27.156 --> 00:34.076

I've just had so many different opportunities where I could raise my hand, and then once I did, they listened.

5

00:35.556 --> 00:39.596

I've had the opportunity to own something really kind of make it my baby

6

00:39.597 --> 00:44.595

I'd like for people that I work around to be able to do the same thing. There really is no better pride in your work than when you actually own something, and you've created it from your own mind and you kind of get to mold it and change it.

8

00:49.596 --> 00:52.595

Every idea really should continue to grow

9

00:53.696 --> 00:57.966

the stronger those bonds are, the stronger future we're gonna have an institution.

10

00:57.967 --> 01:03.966

We have a long history and a long-standing relationship with the communities we were involved in, the communities we support.

11

01:03.967 --> 01:07.966

But we're also bonded together as an employee base and our culture holds us together. And that format.
